April 19th General Membership Meeting

Jim Handel offered to make spaghetti sauce – Bob & Sue Galloway and Tony Jorgensen will help. A reminder to Members to call and RSVP so that we know how much food is needed and don't prepare too much or too little.

Membership Dinner Fund

To date, no funds have been requested in 2010. Dinners so far have mostly been covered by the members attending and paying for their dinners.

The Dinner Fund is not co-mingled with the Club's monies and is overseen by the Board of Directors. These procedures are in place to keep the Club in compliance with the IRS regulations concerning non-profit organizations.

Board of Director's Meeting Minutes
Monday, March 15, 2010

President Rene Allen was present. The meeting was called to order at 6:07pm. Club Officers also present were:

John Snider

Tom Randolph
Greg Johnson

John Labash

Guests

There were no guests present.

Meeting Minutes

The minutes were accepted as distributed. Phyllis Ames brought to the attention of the Board the difference between the North Delta Conservancy and the California Waterfowl Association.

Correspondence

There was no correspondence.

Treasurer's Report

John reported there was $1,918.76 in the checking account. Donations to the California Waterfowl Association plus trophy expenses brought the profit down. Our bank is moving and John Snider will see about retrieving the Club's documents. All is well.

USI Report

Brentwood is now a partner of USI and everything is complete. USI is getting a new computer cash register that will theoretically communicate between the shotgun and the rifle/pistol range.

Membership

There is one new member: Ben Daughdrill. John Snider moved to accept Ben as a new Club member and Rene seconded. All Board Members present voted in favor of Ben's membership.

Food/Social

Jim Handel volunteered to make spaghetti sauce for April's dinner.

Tom reported that the bar is doing well.

Old Business

There was no old business.

New Business

John Labash motioned to acquire a banner for the impalement range that states "3-d targets supplied by Concord Sportsmen's Club." The Board voted unanimously to pay $700 for this banner to help advertise the Club and attract new members.

Rene reminded the Board that Club Members can call Rene or the Hot Line in order to RSVP for the next dinner for the newsletter.

Jessica Flynn is no longer going to be in charge of the Club's website. Both Tom and John Labash volunteered to work together to reestablish the website for the Club. Tom informed the Board that Yahoo can offer 5g of space for $13.94 per month (tax included).

Secretary's Note

The next Day on the Range is Sunday April 11th from 9:00 a.m. to 12:30pm. John Labash stated that the February Day on the Range was rockin'! Lots of members, some guests plus some drop ins.

Announcements

There were no announcements.

Adjournment

There being no further Board business, Tom moved to adjourn the meeting and John Labash seconded. The meeting was adjourned at 6:27 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
